Summary

Ashutosh is a student entrepreneur, 21 y/o and having experience in multiple domains with multiple start-ups.

He launched his first start-up in 2016 with an investment of INR 10k and reached profitability within 3 months. He also bagged an seed investment of undisclosed amount (Coz yahan amount liqhunga, to kuch to log kahenge)

Afterward, he has worked with several college entrepreneurs pan India. Currently, he is the founder of 3 profitably running start-ups, which were are all bootstrapped, that is without any external monetary support. He actively working with 4 other startups as a Co-founder, guiding them towards exponential growth.
He has worked with investment firms with angel investors and venture capitalists.

He is also running an incubator and accelerator program to support the Indian entrepreneurship ecosystem.
One of the start-ups, where he is Bussiness Development Head and co-founder, is already generating more than INR 4 cr in revenue.

His latest venture has earned revenue over INR 450K within 10 days of its inception (1 Jan 2020 to 11 Jan 2020), a startup centric IT and R&D firm, even without a website or office.

Due to commendable work ethics and proven track record, he has earned selection as a delegate to participate in MIT Bootcamps (organized by Massachusetts Institute of Technology) twice, for :
1. Innovation and Enterprunerhsip
2. Technology and Enterprunerhsip

He has been invited as a guest speaker in multiple educational institutions on the likes of IIIT Gwalior, DU, GGSIPU, NIT Durgapur, etc.

He has partnered with NGOs to assist in the improvement of their operational efficiencies.

He is on a mission to improve the efficiency of student entrepreneurs and to enable self-sufficiency through bootstrapping and reducing the dependability on external investments. He is actively working towards preventing startups from being conned by fraudsters in the start-up ecosystem.
